I sent the manuscript to the Journal WSEAS Transactions on Environment and Development because my scop paper considered it. It turns out that editors and reviewers' response is speedy but still prioritizes the quality of writing as illustrated in the notes of reviewers. We writers are delighted that WSEAS's editorial service on paper writing instructions is very clear. We thank the editors who have selected our paper for review to undergo a significant quality improvement. We also thank the reviewers who have provided very constructive notes of progress.

Warm regards
